

NATURE HAIKU
WITH SIMPLE ZINE TUTORIAL

Before we begin writing:
Fold an 8-page
zine, a small book
for your haikus!

Gather:

- 1 sheet of paper
- Scissors
- Spoon or other tool to press folds

walking Log

What I Saw

APRIL 8-12, 2020
JACKSON, MS

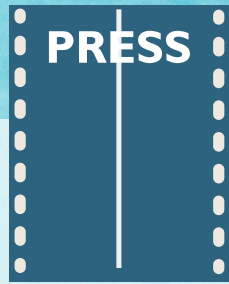

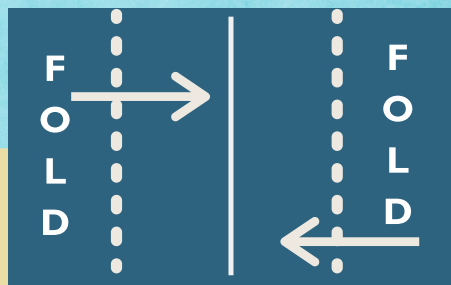

1

Fold the paper in half. Press fold with your hand or tool and unfold.

2

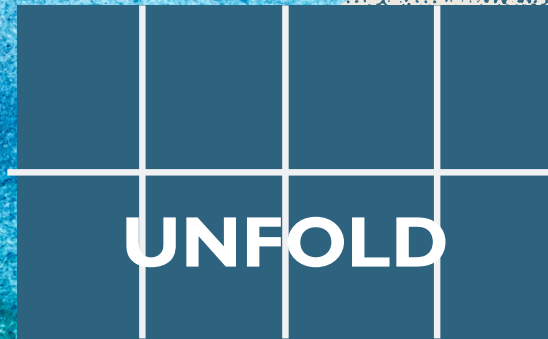

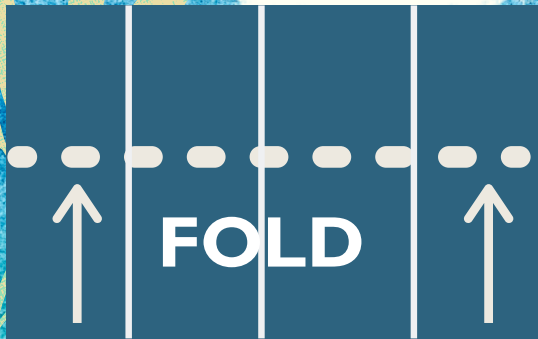

Fold left edge to center. Repeat with right edge. Unfold.

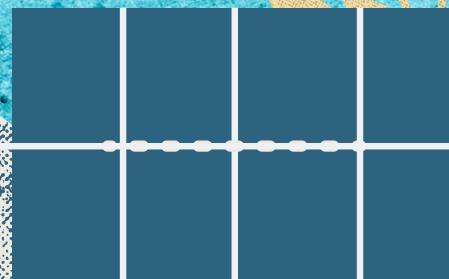

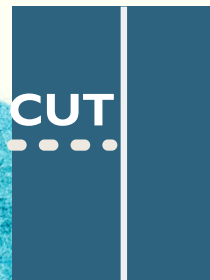

3

Fold bottom edge to top. Press and fold. You'll see 8 sections.

4

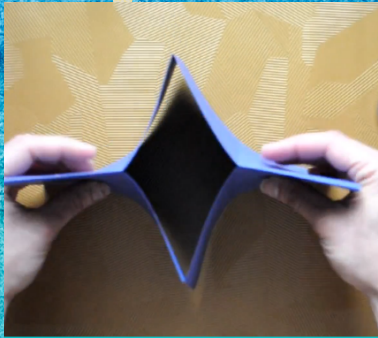

Fold the sheet in half. On folded side, cut the crease half-way. Unfold.

5

Fold the sheet horizontally (so the cut crease is at the top). Holding the edges, push them towards each other so the middles pop out. Then close.

Score all edges by pressing with a spoon.

TA-DA!

Time to write!

A haiku (pronounced hahy-koo) is a Japanese poem with 17 syllables divided into three lines, typically like 5-7-5.

HAIKU
SYLLABLES

5

7

5

These poems are often written about nature and examine subtleties of being outside.

Source:

<https://literaryterms.net/haiku/>

BE INSPIRED BY NATURE

Go outside, find a picture, or imagine a scene.

Write words that come to mind
about what you see, hear, or sense otherwise.

BIRDS

- FLY, BEAK, EYE
CROW, CLAW, WORM
WING, WIRE
- BIRDFEED,
WINGED BIRDHOUSE FEATHER
- MIGRATION

With the haiku format of 5-7-5 in mind, begin to draft your poem.

FROM A TREE
HOTEL

.....

.....

.....

~~MOVING
A QUICK SPEAK
FLYING IN AIR TIME
FLY FAST SPACE~~

~~WE ALL
MAKE A CALL AND LISTEN AND CALL~~
OUR CALLS OVERLAP
WE LISTEN

~~SOMEONE~~ WHOS THAT OVER THERE?

WHERE?

HAIKU
SYLLABLES

5

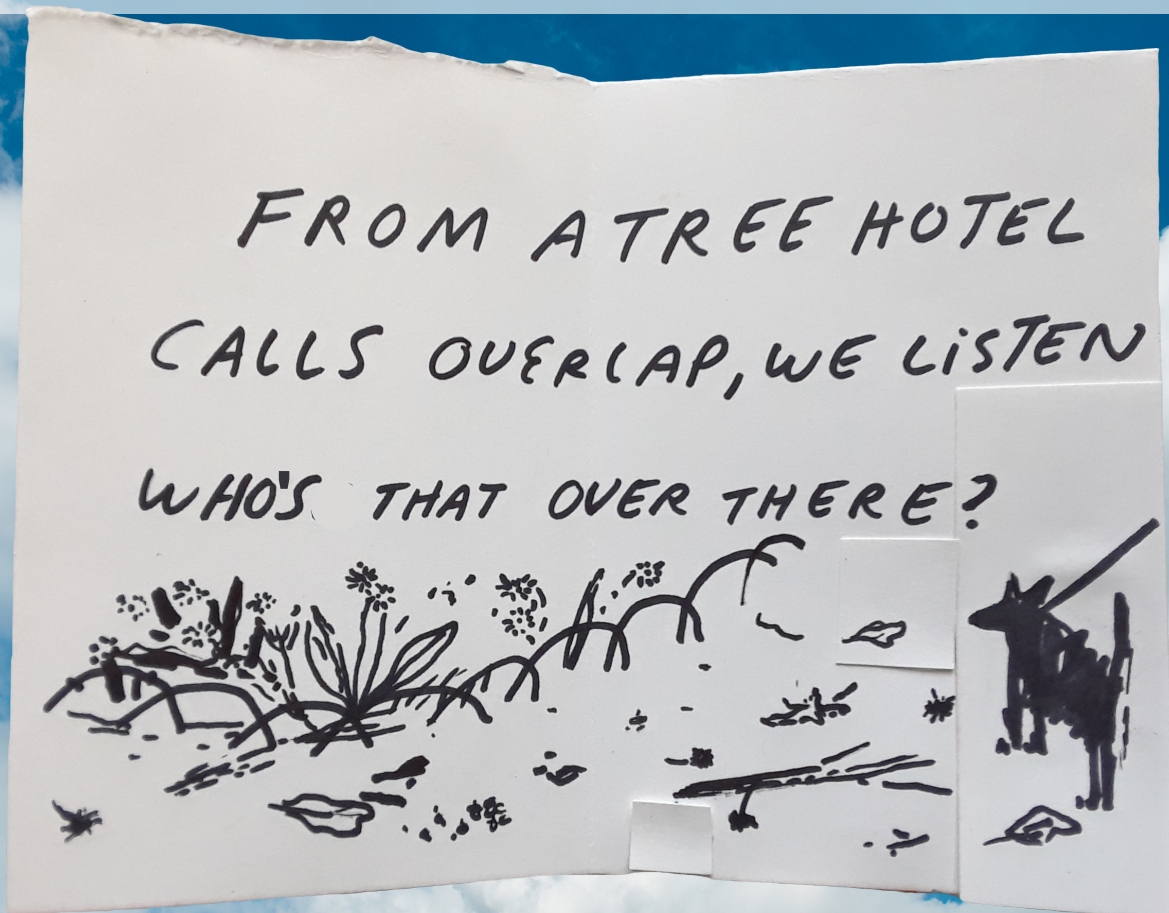

7

5

Cross out and replace words
until you finalize your haiku!

Add your final haiku to a page in your book. Decorate with color or drawings.

For a collection, fill your book with haiku!

Did you make a haiku zine?
Share it with us!

#MMAEDU
#MMAEDUATHOME
#MUSEUMFROMHOME
#THEMUSEUMSCHOOLMMA

