

Introducing MMA's Affinity Circles

Members with special interest in collecting art or gardening have new ways to support the Mississippi Museum of Art. Affinity Circles are available to current MMA Members at the Enthusiast level ($125) and above. Those Members can join each Circle for an additional annual fee of $100 per Circle (benefits for 1 Member) or $180 (benefits for 2 Members). Learn more about the Collectors Circle and Garden Circle below.

A $50 portion of your Garden or Collectors Circle fee will be immediately allocated to the Museum's Garden Fund or Acquisition Fund respectively, powering MMA's ability to maintain the gardens and add one new piece to its collection annually.

Collectors Circle

Collectors Circle (formally Collectors Club) invites new and experienced art collectors and art enthusiasts to explore artist studios, private collections, and regional galleries with MMA's curatorial team while supporting the Museum's acquisitions fund.

Annual benefits include:

- 6-8 events held throughout the year at collectors' homes, galleries, and the Museum;
- Tours of artists' studios and MMA's vault;
- Trips to regional museums (additional costs associated); and
- Workshops and panel discussions about starting or adding to your collection.

Garden Circle

All levels of gardeners and gardening enthusiasts are invited to join the Garden Circle to deepen their knowledge and interest in gardening while supporting the gardens at MMA.

Annual benefits include:

- Access to an exclusive newsletter with garden-specific updates and events, and seasonal planting tips;
- Invitations to learning opportunities from master gardeners, landscape architects, and local growers throughout the year;
- Tours of local gardens to explore Mississippi's most beautiful green spaces; and
- Early access to MMA's Spring and Fall Plant Sales.
