

MMA's Affinity Circle Memberships

Do you have special interest in collecting art, gardening, MMA's Center for Art & Public Exchange (CAPE), or programming created specifically for families? Consider joining one or more of MMA's Affinity Circles. Affinity Circles are available to current MMA Members at the Enthusiast level ($125) and above. A $50 portion of your Garden, Collectors, CAPE, or Family Circle fee will be immediately allocated to the support the area of the Museum that inspires you most—helping maintain the gardens, grow the permanent collection, expand hands-on art educational opportunities for children and families, and support CAPE's artist-in-residence program. It's an easy way to enjoy special programming with others who share your interests, all while making a meaningful impact at MMA.

Collectors Circle

Collectors Circle invites new and experienced art collectors and art enthusiasts to explore artist studios, private collections, and regional galleries with MMA's curatorial team while supporting the Museum's acquisitions fund.

Annual benefits include:

- 6-8 events held throughout the year at collectors' homes, galleries, and the Museum;
- Tours of artists' studios and MMA's vault; Trips to regional museums (additional costs associated); and
- Workshops and panel discussions about starting or adding to your collection.

CAPE Circle

MMA's Center for Art & Public Exchange (CAPE) Circle invites anyone interested in engaging with artists and experts from diverse disciplines to discuss social justice issues while supporting the Museum's CAPE artists-in-residences and acquisitions by BIPOC artists.

Annual benefits include:

- 2-4 CAPE Conversations held throughout the year at MMA
- Opportunity to meet artists and panelists participating in CAPE Conversations;
- Quarterly CAPE Newsletter;
- Opportunity to be the first to meet new artists-in-residences and learn about their projects.

Garden Circle

All levels of gardeners and gardening enthusiasts are invited to join the Garden Circle to deepen their knowledge and interest in gardening while supporting the gardens at MMA.

Annual benefits include:

- Access to an exclusive newsletter with garden-specific updates and events, and seasonal planting tips;
- Invitations to learning opportunities from master gardeners, landscape architects, and local growers throughout the year;
- Tours of local gardens to explore Mississippi's most beautiful green spaces; and
- Early access to MMA's plant sales.

New! Family Circle

MMA's Family Circle invites families with young children to deepen their connection to the Museum through hands-on learning opportunities and special events designed just for them. Your membership helps support educational opportunities for children and families at MMA, ensuring more young visitors can discover, create, and learn through art.

Annual benefits include:

- 2-4 free family programs each year, only for Family Circle Members;
- Two art kits provided annually per family;
- First access to register for MMA Summer Camps;
- Special opportunities at MMA family programs; and connections with families who share a love of art.

It is easy to join any of the Affinity Circles! Make sure you are an MMA Member at the Enthusiast level ($125) or above and then join the Affinity Circle you wish to support!
